We welcome all to live and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Dear St. John's Family,

God's grace to you this happy October, or as the Church often marks the season - Michaelmas (that season following the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels).

The activity of this blessed congregation far exceeds its sheer number of available hands--there is something exponential about it all. In this final lap through Pentecost, let us consider the glory of God, the powerful love of neighbor with which the Spirit arms each of us, and lean into joy.

In the midst of it all, it is my personal goal as your priest that our outreach only complement our sacramental life, prayer life, and preaching/teaching life together. We must know the Word of God in order to live the Word of God, and this shall come through the Word, the Sacraments, and through Prayer.

God bless St. John's,

Nate+

COVID Protocols

The Bishop's Committee, in keeping with the recommendations of the CDC and the Diocese of Oklahoma, has returned all services and activities to pre-COVID status. We are continuing to live-stream for those still viewing at home, but we would love to see you back in the pews now that all is better. We have returned to coffee hour in Wade-Dalton Hall and are serving wine at Eucharist. We heartily welcome those who wish to continue wearing masks inside the church, but we will leave that choice to each individual/family.
